	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Discuss potential statutory changes for 2023 session- Chair Dowell led a discussion on potential statutory changes for the 2023 session. It was discussed that Chapter 15 should have juvenile status offenses split out of the chapter, leaving crimes against juveniles and vulnerable adults. A question was posed about issues related to appropriate sexual autonomy for vulnerable adults that at times has

	been an issue. There was discussion of reviewing all criminal offenses to determine if there were any unconstitutional issues that were missed with previous legislation. A discussion was had on if the subcommittee was concerned about a penalty of one year in jail being appropriate for felony injury to child. The committee reviewed HB 625 in the 2022 session, which deals with inappropriate images being transmitted without consent. The committee noted that edits had been suggested but ultimately were not accepted. Other states have similar bills, but this conduct is covered and charged now under the telephonic harassment statutes 18-6710 and 18-6711. The SOR is interested in language that was identified with a trailer bill last year, 18-8310 (1) (a) supervised release/IDAPA, definitions of part time or temporary addresses, and the definitions of aggravated and non-aggravated offenses and how that relates to registration issues. Other ideas were discussed to include potentially enhancing misdemeanor sexual battery.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Identify topics for next meeting- Chair Dowell will work with Erik, Abby, John and Amy on a redline version of potential legislation for the next meeting. This will give the subcommittee a document for review/approval to send to ICJC for next steps.
	Adjourn- Next Scheduled Meeting, TBD- Adjourn at 1:53pm. Next meeting at the call of the Chair.
